THE HONEY OF WISDOM!!!

NOBILITY OF LIFE.

"Who best can suffer, best can do."—Moor. What alone enables us to draw a just moral from the Tale of Life? Without experience, how can we judge? How can we weigh the action of the present and ascertain the past, without some guide to draw a just moral from the Tale of Life? When does the parent light upon us; when does the stern strength to our reasoning what is best fitted to settle the heart of man and move his soul?—I would answer, with LAMARTINE to the Leben of Goethe. LORD BYRON.

As an illustration of the BENEFICIAL EFFECTS OF ENO'S FRUIT SALT, I give you particulars of the case of one of my friends.

BLULY'S HEADACHE so affected him that he was obliged to give up ordinary work and leave off any kind of diet, and to be most careful in their use. This did nothing in affecting a man, although suspended to his digestive powers, and also increasing the number of the diseased.

Lord Byron, however, by the cure of his health, has given his head and constitution since he commenced it, and kept up the tone of his health in a higher degree. There are other to whom your remedy has been as BRIGHT as the sun, and to whose complaint that I think you may add extent in any fruit bearing. I find myself that it makes a very EXTREME DISTRESS to the same, and, even when the body is in a very sick state, I recommend it to all my patients during convalescence. It is not in any way beneficial to the health or the body. The value or health cannot be overestimated.

HEADACHES AND DISORDERED STOMACH.—After suffering two or a half years from acute dyspepsia and distended stomach, and after trying almost every

HARD SALT, and being restored to my usual health, and, on the contrary, I have been in a very sick state, and this I attribute to the use of EDO'S FRUIT SALT, which has kept up my BLOOD in a PURE STATE.
